EXPERT Q&A

Bob Sonju, author

Sharon V. Kramer, author

Mike Mattos, author

Austin Buffum, author

What is the focus of your new book?

Best Practices at Tier 2 is focused on Tier 2 supports for schools and teams. The book is one in a series of RTI at Work™ books designed to help schools and teams become much more focused in their intervention efforts. We are excited to share the research and strategies behind effective Tier 2 supports told through stories, vignettes, and practical strategies intended to help schools and teams become more targeted in their Tier 2 intervention efforts.

Why this book now?

In one word? Clarity! It is our experience that many schools and teams have embraced the belief of ensuring that every student learns at high levels but lack the clarity needed to be truly effective. We have found that schools and teams could benefit from practical strategies in establishing the foundation that is needed in order to build an effective Tier 2 system of supports. In this book, we use the PLC at Work® framework to create the clarity needed to target effective Tier 2 intervention and provide specific strategies, templates, and tools to assist schools and teams in their journey.

How does it contribute to the core mission and vision of RTI at Work?

As schools focus their efforts on creating the beliefs, behaviors, and systems to ensure that every student learns at high levels, response to intervention (RTI) provides the multitiered structure needed to help schools respond to students' needs through systematic, targeted, and directive intervention supports. This book will provide tools and practical expertise designed to help teams answer the question, "We taught it the best way we knew how and still have a few students who didn't get it; now what?"

What specific challenges will it help educators overcome?

We have found that oftentimes, the most well-intentioned efforts of our schools and teams will fail if there is a lack of clarity in the process. For example, if teams are not completely clear on what every student needs to know, their common formative assessment efforts will inevitably begin to unravel, resulting in Tier 2 supports that are not targeted or effective. Whether a team is new to the process or is seasoned and looking to refine their work, this book will help them focus on those foundational elements that are critical in providing Tier 2 supports for all students.

► CHALLENGE

When Clinton High School administrators decided to attend a Solution Tree conference, they hoped to learn strategies that would help them fight several discouraging trends. The graduation rate was declining as failures were increasing. State assessment results and attendance were both down. Student behavior issues were increasing. Staff efficacy and overall school morale were low and continuing to diminish. The existing structure and culture did not allow staff the time to fully support all students—those in general classes, as well as those in honors and AP. Another challenge was eliminating the barrier to honors and AP classes, making those opportunities available to all students.

“After hearing Mike Mattos speak, I was very intrigued by his vision but still had many reasons why none of it would really be successful for me in my school,” recalls former principal Karinne Tharaldson-Jones. “I approached him after his session and stated just that. He confirmed my belief by saying this: ‘You are the principal, right?’ He then stated, ‘You are right; it won’t work for you. You are the principal, and you don’t believe it.’”

► IMPLEMENTATION

“That conversation with Mike Mattos changed everything,” Tharaldson-Jones says. “He was right; I had the power, the resources, and the vision to fix things. If not me, who?” Tharaldson-Jones returned to CHS with her leadership team, determined to focus on the right things that would enable a total and complete school system change:

- Student learning
- Teacher collaboration
- Administrative “laser-like” focus

Using the books Pyramid Response to Intervention and Simplifying Response to Intervention (Buffum, Mattos, and Weber) as guides, CHS staff eventually realigned and implemented an intervention process where data for every student was analyzed by a data team each week. Student indicators are now reviewed each week, and interventions are implemented for all students in all class levels, including AP. Staff are required to update grades each week, and the data team reviews the success of each intervention.

Tharaldson-Jones and her team started very small and with great focus: one teacher, one course, and one grade level. “We put a study table in place for Algebra I during lunch. One teacher was assigned to this lunch intervention to see if any progress could be made. We had great success after only one trimester. Our failures dropped in half.”

After expanding this small effort to other courses, school staff ultimately created a system where students could be successful and achieve at high levels.

“In the end I realized the biggest barrier to the success at CHS was me,” Tharaldson-Jones says. “Our staff was good enough, our students were bright enough; the principal just had to be brave enough.”

► RESULTS

The trends at CHS now tell a very different story. By every indicator, CHS has been successful in improving student performance. Over the course of six years, the total number of course failures in grades 9–12 decreased by 79%. Results also show that students feel supported in their efforts to be successful in the classroom and, in response, are showing up to learn. In just one year, student attendance increased by 3%.
