

Classroom Feedback Survey: Parents

Over the next school year, we will be experimenting with the role feedback plays in learners' lives. To begin that process, I'd like to learn more about your current thoughts on grading and feedback in schools. Please complete the following survey. I will share my findings with you after I have a chance to analyze them.

| Question | Your Response | |
|--|---------------|-------|
| 1. I have a good sense for what my child is supposed to be learning in class. | True | False |
| 2. I regularly offer my child feedback on work he or she is doing for class. | True | False |
| 3. I feel qualified to offer my child feedback on work he or she is doing in class. | True | False |
| 4. I carefully read the feedback teachers or peers give my child. | True | False |
| 5. I help my child act on teacher and peer feedback. | True | False |
| 6. I expect my child to act on teacher and student feedback. | True | False |
| 7. My child gets just the right amount of feedback from teachers or peers. | True | False |
| 8. The feedback I care the most about is the grades that my child earns. | True | False |
| 9. The feedback my child receives in school is helpful. | True | False |
| 10. The feedback that my child receives in school resembles the feedback my child receives beyond school. | True | False |
| 11. My child has a good sense of his or her strengths and weaknesses. | True | False |
| 12. Grades are an important tool for holding students accountable for learning. | True | False |
| 13. There are consequences for earning bad grades in our home. | True | False |
| 14. Schools should celebrate students with good grades during honors assemblies. | True | False |
| 15. I love it when I know that my child is making progress as a learner. | True | False |
| Reflection Questions | | |
| 1. How do you feel about grades? Are they an effective tool for communicating student progress? For motivating your students? For encouraging learning? 2. How is the feedback your child gets in school similar to or different from the feedback you get in the workplace? 3. If there was one thing every teacher needed to know about grading and feedback, what would it be? | | |