Thumbs Up, Thumbs Down

Decide whether you agree or disagree with each statement. Show a thumbs-up sign for agree and a thumbs-down sign for disagree.

Record the results on this activity sheet.

	Statement	Number of responses
		Agree	Disagree
1	Students who get picked on all the time, either face-to-face or online, usually deserve it. Bystanders shouldn't do anything.
2	A student who bullies others likes to have an audience.
3	Students should not ignore or remain silent if they witness bullying behaviors.
4	Talking with other students about a bullying incident you witnessed can make the person bullying appear to be a bit of a hero.
5	It is none of my business if I see a student I know being teased badly online, so I do not need to do anything about it.
6	Being friendly to a student who is bullying others reinforces that you think his or her bullying behavior is OK.
7	Shielding a bullying situation from adult view is actively supporting bullying behavior.
8	Refusing to give information about a bullying situation when asked is supporting the person bullying.
9	Empathizing with the distress of the person being bullied is one way to help him or her.
10	Laughing and smiling when another student is being bullied indicate you support the person bullying.
