Is This Bullying?

Situation 1 As he is playing tag at recess, a fourth-grade boy runs past a first-grade girl and knocks her water bottle out of her hand. The first-grade girl is upset, but the fourth-grade boy doesn't notice and keeps running.	Situation 2 A student in your class teases another classmate each day about his hair. This makes him feel sad and not want to come to school.
Situation 3 A third-grade girl punches another third-grade girl on the arm every time she walks past her in the classroom. The punches are hurting her, and she is frightened of the other girl.	Situation 4 Two boys playing baseball have an argument over whose turn it is to bat, and they begin to fight. Both boys are equally to blame and shouldn't be fighting.
Situation 5 Students in a group, who were your friends last week, stopped letting you be part of their group this week. They say nasty things about you every time you try to join in, and you don't know why.	Situation 6 All the students in class have given the nickname Greeny Head to Paul because he swims a lot and his hair is a little green. Paul hates this nickname.
Situation 7 A student you are working on a project with on the computer logs on as you and sends really scary messages to other students in your class.	Situation 8 A friend is visiting your house and suggests you use your parents' cell phone to call people and call them rude names and then hang up.
