

Name: _____

Standing Up for Your Beliefs

Situation 1 You are in the lunchroom and see an older boy take a packet of lollipops and slip it into his jacket pocket. He tries to leave without paying. How do you feel? What do you do?	Situation 2 At your math test, the student sitting next to you asks to look at your answers. How do you feel? What do you do?
Situation 3 At recess, a young student gets the last soccer ball. You see an older student approach him and try to take the ball away. How do you feel? What do you do?	Situation 4 Your group is playing a game, and there is no restriction on the number of players. Another student asks to join in the game, but your friends say you already have too many players. How do you feel? What do you do?
Situation 5 While you are walking to the bus stop with your friends, one of them says she thinks it would be fun to throw garbage at cars driving past. How do you feel? What do you do?	Situation 6 There is a long line in the lunchroom. You have been waiting for some time when another student tries to cut in line ahead of you. How do you feel? What do you do?
Situation 7 You are in the computer labs working on a group assignment. The assignment is due tomorrow, and you aren't finished. The rest of your group starts looking up inappropriate information on the Internet. How do you feel? What do you do?	Situation 8 For a treat, your teacher brings in board games to play. There are not enough games for everyone to play, so the class must take turns. One group has played the same game three times in a row and refuses to let anyone else have a turn. How do you feel? What do you do?