

Higher-Order Thinking Skills Criteria Checklist— Multiple Students

Student clearly communicates solutions.	Dates:
Student organizes information successfully.	Dates:
Student identifies important information to the task.	Dates:
Student develops and follows a plan to find a solution.	Dates:
Student listens to the perspectives of others.	Dates:
Student collaborates well with others.	Dates:
Student clearly communicates thinking.	Dates:
Student supports thinking with evidence.	Dates:
Student identifies multiple ways to solve problems or complete tasks.	Dates:
Student sees the problems from various perspectives.	Dates:
Student shows perseverance when problem solving.	Dates:
Student Names:																		