

Figure 8.3: Questions for Identifying Student Jobs and Leadership Responsibilities

What is my job title?
What responsibilities must I assume to do the job well?
What responsibilities must I delegate to other students?
What phrases can I use to communicate responsibilities to other students?
What phrases can I use to praise and encourage students when they are doing a great job?
When I experience difficulty with students who are doing their job, what can I say to them to get them back on task in a positive way?
What should I not do or say when I am frustrated with other students?	