Content-Area Literacy Resources

This resource contains 7,932 words drawn from all areas of the curriculum, a six-step procedure for teaching vocabulary, and games and other activities for review:

This book contains general vocabulary strategies and a separate chapter devoted to building academic vocabulary in math, science, social studies, and the arts:

The following resources contain ways to guide students through informational text and ideas for incorporating writing into subject-area lessons:

These resources contain content-specific lesson templates and examples for teaching vocabulary in grades 1–8:

These resources contain content-specific lesson templates and examples for teaching comprehension in grades 1–8:

The following are practical articles on literacy strategies across the curriculum:

